

READING CHALLENGE

3rd–5th Grade

- Read a book with more than 150 pages.
- Read a mystery novel.
- Read a book by an author you've never tried before.
- Read a book that was also made into a movie — then watch the movie.
- Read a book with a map inside.
- Read a nonfiction book about an animal.
- Read a book set in another country.
- Read a book where the main character is a different gender than you.
- Read a fantasy novel with magic in it.
- Read a biography of someone you admire.
- Read a book recommended by your school librarian.
- Read a book published before your parents were born.
- Read a book that won an award (Newbery Medal, Caldecott, etc.).
- Read a graphic novel.
- Read a book about history.
- Read a book set during a war or a time of conflict.
- Read a book about science or nature.
- Read a book in one weekend.
- Read a book that scared you a little.
- Read a book your parent loved as a kid.
- Read a book about someone overcoming a challenge.
- Read a book with chapters named after something other than numbers.
- Read a book about a sport you've never played.
- Read a book told from the perspective of an animal.
- Read the first book in a series — then commit to the whole series.
- Read a book set in a real city you've never visited.
- Read an autobiography.
- Read a book with a twist ending.
- Read a book recommended by a friend.
- Read a book about art, music, or dance.
- Read a book set entirely in one location (a ship, a school, a single town, etc.).
- Read a poetry book or collection of poems.
- Read a book that teaches something new.
- Read a book about someone from a different culture or background.
- Read a book published this year.
- Read a book that might make you cry.
- Read a book with more than 5 main characters.
- Read a book set in the future.
- Read a book set over 100 years ago.
- Read a book about a real-life explorer or adventurer.
- Read a book where a kid has a superpower or special ability.
- Read a book with a color in the title.
- Read a book about food or cooking.
- Read a book where the main character moves to a new place.
- Read a book that is considered a "classic" for your age group.
- Read a book about an invention or discovery that changed the world.
- Read a joke book or riddle book.
- Read a book about a real animal rescue or wildlife conservation story.
- Read a book set at a camp or school.
- Re-read a book from when you were younger — notice what's different about how you read it now.